

One of the most common pre-trip questions we receive is all about what to pack, and what the essential items are. This is a list of recommended kit to take on a Dog Sledding Challenge. We have tried to pare down this kit list to the absolute must-haves for your challenge, but above all you should use your common sense and your own personal preferences when you are packing. Check out our additional guidelines at the bottom of this list!

MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR KIT

PACKING

Bring as little as possible but bring everything you need. Travelling light is especially important during this challenge due to a lack of room in your sled and the need to avoid overburdening the dogs, so do not bring things you can do without. Day sacks are kept in the sled and waterproof liners or bags are essential for keeping valuables and clothes dry within your pack.

CLOTHES

Temperatures can fluctuate enormously from day-night. Layers are key, as well as a synthetic or down jacket for the evenings. You will be standing on a sledge in minus temperatures for a long time so you must dress appropriately. Make sure that you wear and test your kit before arrival. You will be provided with a snow suit for mushing which you can wear over your salopettes and jacket.

DO NOT bring cotton as it is the worst in extreme cold conditions. Please check you labels closely and if they contain cotton, leave them at home. Wool is the best material for the conditions.

SLEEPING

Look for a sleeping bag 'Comfort Rated' as close to the anticipated minimum temperature for your trek. For this challenge it should be between 0° and -20° C. If you particularly feel the cold then upgrade your sleeping bag to the next level eg. from 4 Season to 4+ Season. Don't forget a silk sleeping bag liner for extra comfort without taking up too much space in your pack. Another handy tip is to keep your camera in your sleeping bag as you sleep. This will conserve the battery, which runs down quickly in cold temperatures.

HYDRATION

During exercise your fluid needs increase dramatically and hydration is vital. Bring a Thermos flask for hot drinks instead of water bottles which will just freeze.

HEALTH

Make sure you take a first-aid kit with you and your moisturiser/sun cream is not water-based so it doesn't freeze on your skin. Although you may feel cold, the sun will be stronger on the snow. Don't forget to take an SPF stick for your lips as well.

If you do not own some of this equipment and do not wish to spend a lot of money on buying equipment then we would highly recommend hiring equipment from our partners at Outdoorhire. They can hire really good quality outdoor equipment for weekends and often hiring a high quality piece of equipment is better than purchasing a cheap version
